

Academic Pediatric Association
Educational Scholars Program: Cohort 4 (2010-2013)

Last Name	First Name	Institution	Project Title
Batra	Maneesh	University of Washington School of Medicine	Evaluation of Novel Residency Curricular Pathways in Community Pediatrics and Advocacy, and Global Health: Effects on Resident Recruitment, Satisfaction and Burnout
Belkowitz	Julia	University of Miami Miller School of Medicine	Improving Health Advocacy Skills among Medical Students: Can we instill in medical students the pediatric philosophy of prevention as the best medicine?
Cruz	Mario	St. Christopher's Hospital for Children/Drexel University	A Longitudinal Community Violence Prevention Curriculum for Pediatric Residents
Ferguson	Mark	University of Oklahoma College of Medicine	The Development and Assessment of an Art Observation Curriculum for Medical Students
Graessle	William	Cooper University Hospital	Educational prescriptions: teaching residents how to pose relevant clinical queries
Jackson (Stancil)	Jennifer	Children's National Medical Center	Development and Evaluation of an Intensive Resuscitation Curriculum for Pediatric Residents
King (Kamburowski)	Marta	Primary Children's Hospital, University of Utah	Pediatric hospitalist curriculum for residents: development, implementation, and evaluation
Larsen	Kami	University of Nevada School of Medicine	Video Clips as an Innovative Methodology to Teach Billing and Coding
Long	Michele	University of California Davis School of Medicine	Exploration of critical incidents and other triggers that prompt creation of learning goals during a fourth year sub-internship rotation
McKenna	Michael	Indiana University School of Medicine	Using Social Networking Sites as an Educational Tool for Pediatric Residents
Mogilner	Leora	Mount Sinai School of Medicine	Formalizing, Implementing and Evaluating a Community Pediatrics Curriculum For Residents
Porras	Gisela	Hasbro Children's/Rhode Island Hospital	Teaching evidence-based communication skills to pediatric faculty, fellows and residents
Potter	Katherine	University of Louisville School of Medicine	Pediatric Intensive Care for the General Pediatrician: Developing a Curriculum for Resident Education in Pediatric Critical Care
Hai Jung	Rhim	St. Barnabas Hospital	Pocket Tool to Evaluate Professionalism
Roskind	Cindy	Columbia University	Development of a Multi-institutional Online Pediatric Emergency Medicine Curriculum
Shah	Neha	Children's National Medical Center	Creation and Evaluation of a Web-based, Educational Curriculum for Pediatric Hospital Medicine Fellows
Walmsley	Daniel	Thomas Jefferson University	Anticipatory Guidance about Violence Prevention: The Influence of Physician Attitudes and Practice Characteristics